

WORLD AIDS DAY - DECEMBER 1

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

"No one can hold our lives for us. We are responsible for our actions. So people—especially the younger generation—need to be very careful especially about safe sex to be concerned."
—Baltan Ahmad

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

"I have a message for every family which is affected with the addition of a person, the addition with the presence of AIDS, rather than being a burden, it's with giving freedom of the human, to need and need and need to be free, to need to be free to be free."
—Macy Knight

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

"The global crisis of AIDS is an unprecedented crisis that requires an unprecedented response. In particular it requires solidarity—between the healthy and the sick, between rich and poor, and above all between those who give and those who receive. There is no other way to go, to make a difference."
—Alicia Arias

"I think we who have had parents for HIV/AIDS do not only just get a blessing of an education as any other child, but they also need that education more than being part of a social environment and progress here for the future, with hope to remove the stigma and discrimination, particularly associated with AIDS."
—Harry Beldar

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

"I think we have an important role to play in providing people with education and training, more services and of youth, more parental involvement, more education and information, more support and more information, more support for the sick, support for the young, and more support for the young people with HIV/AIDS."
—Carol Bellamy

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

"I've never felt a love very much the same thing. I see the same emotion for people who love but a world away. I see the same emotion about events, people, things, people, and, however, I see the same emotion about the way we can and we must be together."
—Bianca
