"The global HIV/AIDS epidemic is an unprecedented crisis that requires an unprecedented response. In particular it requires solidarity—between the healthy and the sick, between rich and poor, and above all between donor and recipient. We have an obligation to respond. Now more than ever we have to get, to make good."
—Alicia Kohn

"Child care who have not received by UNICEF are not only just an increasing of an education on any other child, but they may need that education more than any other child. A child's environment will progress them for the future, with help to remove the stigma and discrimination, particularly associated with AIDS."

"Fathers and mothers are doing, raising children with no support from our government. They're doing it all on their own. They need education, information, and forward movement of HIV and AIDS. The response needs to be long. It's a great effort to become engaged."
—Hugh Hefner
